

Green-Wood Bowl Turning by Jerry Rhoads

Class Code: CJR022618

Description: Learn face grain turning while turning a regular shaped bowl and a "Skinny" (thin walled) bowl from green (unseasoned) wood. Proper technique, tools, safety, and sharpening bowl gouges will be taught.

Instructor: Jerry Rhoads (jract1@yahoo.com)

Location: CU Woodshop School of Woodworking, 1302 Parkland Court, Champaign

Class Dates/Times: Monday, February 26, 2018
8am-4pm

Number of students: 4 (max)

Prerequisites/skill level required: Some woodturning experience and knowledge of the wood lathe is necessary for this class.

Cost: $160 includes 2 bowl blanks. Please bring your own lunch.

Comments: Students are encouraged to bring their own safety glasses, face shields, and dust masks.